

The Perfect Game

Strophe 1

Early Morning we take a train
Going to a place, forgot the name
Ready for sunshine, ready for rain
Ready for party ready for the game
For the game – for the Game

We meet some people in that train
Going to this place, we forgot the name
Drinking beer or Kafi-Schnaps it's the same
Drinking beer to be ready for the game
For the game – for the Game

Then we arrive at this shitty hole
Where the Kubbs are set and the Game is ready to role

Strophe 2

The first game's easy, we hit quite well
The second and the third, we win as well
To play against us, feels like hell
Because we hit better then Wilhelm Tell
Wilhelm Tell - Wilhelm Tell

Like this we'll reach the final, it's easy to tell
Later it's done, they ring the bell
The game is over, we say fare well
The next time better bring Wilhelm Tell
Wilhelm Tell - Wilhelm Tell

Then we just play another one
Because the Kubbs are set and the game is ready to run...

Refrain:

We wanna play the
Kubb Kubb Kubb Kubb Kubb
And then the King

We wanna hit the
Kubb Kubb Kubb Kubb Kubb
And then the King

We gonna hit the
Kubb Kubb Kubb Kubb Kubb
And win this thing
